

*The Innovative Technology Action Group (ITAG) in collaboration with the Ideas x Innovation Network(i2n)
presents its fourth annual Tech Summit – TECH360 2016
June 10th at Penn State Great Valley.*

Returning this year - an Innovation Showcase EXPO with Networking

This year's topics: Artificial Intelligence, Agile Development, Cyber Security, Managing Risk & Security, Hiring Technical Talent (and being hired), Cloud Computing, Robotics and Women in Technology.

Targeted attendees are: CIO, CTO, VP IT and Tech Experts, Project Managers, Architects and System Designers, Business Developers and Application Developers

ITAG and i2n are leading the way to help Southeastern Pennsylvania increase regional economic growth by leveraging workforce and development resources effectively. We are reaching out for your consideration in participating as a sponsor of Tech360 where ITAG and i2n will bring many of the area's experts to you. On June 10, 2016 at Penn State Great Valley, this all-day educational event will bring the area's top companies, IT professionals, and educational institutions to discuss how to best leverage the latest technology in today's economic business climate of doing more with less.

Why become a sponsor of this event?

(Limited Availability: there will a maximum of 8 sponsors featured at this event)

With distribution to over 4000 partners and 8,000 direct business people, educational and training institutions, as well as economic development partnerships, TECH360 is a great opportunity to gain significant, positive recognition for yourself and your supporting organization.
